Welcome to all our new and returning CANSKaters. Our full 2017/2018 skating season is now in full swing. This year marks the 25th year for Peace Passage Skating Club, we will be celebrating this milestone in March during our year end Ice show and Banquet. This years Ice show will be “A look back through Time”, more information regarding the needs for these events will be out soon.

Parent Orientation

There will be a parent orientation held on October 18th in the dressing rooms starting 5 mins after the start of your child's skating time. At least one member from each skater's family MUST attend this meeting. There is a lot of very important information given out during this time. Please be sure to sign the attendance sheet at the door to ensure you have been marked as attending the meeting.
